Faculty, want to go abroad to . . .
• Teach?
• Conduct research?
• Carry out professional projects?

Learn more at

FULBRIGHT DAY

Special guests: Laurie Melin, Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program, and Amirah Nelson, Fulbright Specialist Program

29 March | WSC 3252

10 am | Specialist Program (Virtual)
Come discover this unique opportunity for U.S. academic faculty to engage in two- to six-week project-based exchanges at host institutions across the globe. Learn about the program and get your questions answered.

11 am | Scholar Program (Virtual)
Join us to learn about the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program, which gives faculty the opportunity to study and teach in more than 160 countries. Find out which award is right for you and how to put together a compelling application.

12 pm | Fulbright Faculty Panel (3252 WSC)
Hear from a panel of BYU faculty who’ve previously received Fulbright awards. They’ll discuss their experiences, give application tips, and answer questions about how to navigate living and working in a foreign country.
Lunch will be provided.